

Dear Friends in Christ,

I am so looking forward to our Share the Journey Holy Hour this Sunday, November 6th from 7 p.m. to 8 p.m. I encourage all of our families to please join us in this special time to pray for vocations. Fr. Justin Ryan, Director of Vocations for the Archdiocese of Seattle, will lead us in our prayer, and seminarian, Joseph Tapia-Beeman, will offer a reflection. Joseph is a graduate of our parish school. What a beautiful and prayerful way for us to begin our National Week of Prayer for Vocations!

On Sunday, November 13th, our Knights of Columbus will be offering Pancake Breakfast following the Sunday morning Masses. What a wonderful opportunity to gather as a parish community, spend some time in fellowship with one another, and support the many charitable works of our Knights of Columbus. If you can't stay for breakfast, they will have "to go" containers all ready for you to take home with you. I am so grateful for our new Knights of Columbus who have joined this year and I invite all of our Knights of Columbus in the parish to return to active participation in our monthly meeting and in our service and fundraising projects. I would sure like to meet all my fellow Knights of Columbus.

Please remember throughout the month of November to keep especially in your prayers our brothers and sisters who have died and gone before us marked with the sign of faith. May they truly rest in peace.

Peace+
